UNIDENTIFIED SATELLITES

The USSR was formally dissolved on 26 December 1991.
In the years around this date, various parts of the Soviet bloc surcharged and overprinted Russian stamps to signify the (informal) separation of their state from the Soviet Union. Many were privately produced.
We do not have a Michel specialised Russian catalogue so we are unable to identify and accurately price the issues below.
Prices are nominal. Please note, we have only one of each set apart from 'I', where we have two.
